WRESTLING

This year's grapplers were indeed an adversary to be reckoned with, winning all but three of their meets with overpowering scores. The team took Region I tournament, and then moved on to manage a fourth in the state meet. This year's bids for fame were made by five of our wrestlers; Bob Smith taking fourth among heavyweights; Ronald Brandley copping another fourth in the 120 pound class; Kenny Koelsch capturing a third in the 154 pound class; captain-elect, Harold DeVries making a second with the 133 pound boys; and last, but not least, Captain Bill Gillis walking away with the state championship in the 165 pound with three falls in as many tussels. Coach Clyde Ridenour had good reason to be proud of his boys this year, for, among several returning lettermen, many of his tenderfeet have blossomed into seasoned veterans of this body-building sport.

William Gillis

Fighting Willie Gillis has been one of R. H. S.'s most prominent athletes. He was captain of this year's Big Nine football champs. One of Bill's ambitions was realized when he won a first in the state wrestling meet. He wants to make a good sailor.
